From the Pastor

Stewardship Season is off and running!
During this season we will explore what it means to be a household manager or caretaker of what belongs to God. Since everything belongs to God, that may seem like an impossible mission. However, we're breaking it down.Last week we reaffirmed "There is a place for all y'all" at God's crowded table. This week we're exploring "There is a place for you HERE" in the faith family of UPC.

In preparation for worship, I invite you to slowly read Acts 2:42-47. The text describes life after Pentecost when believers were gifted with the Holy Spirit and created faith community. What kinds of things did members of those communities do? Does the faith family at UPC do some of the same things? What makes UPC a faith family? What is unique and meaningful about the UPC faith family? Through this text what might the Holy Spirit be trying to teach us as individual disciples and as a faith family?

Click here for the worship bulletin. Worship is streamed on the UPC website and YouTube channel.

Peace, Pastor Lisa

Opportunities to Serve

Thank you to all who helped with Sunday activities on October 4th: Martha and Dan Spanier, Ruth Ann Sloan, Nancy Goodall, and Molly Gilbert handled pre and post communion tasks. Lynn Jasensky and Sheila Wenstrup prepared communion. Morgan Dern and Harper Gilbert served as acolytes. Frank Lindsey, Grace Daniels, Dustie Kemp, Brian Pears, Ruth Ann Sloan, Sue Kozlowski, Lynn Jasensky, and Sheila Wenstrup served communion. Chad Cuthbertson-Adams and Erin Kieffer ran A/V, and Ollie Seidman hosted coffee.

As the Body of Christ, we all have gifts, talents and abilities to share. Lending a hand to help lead Sunday worship or caring for our facility is one simple but important way to serve Christ and each other. Brochures with more info are available in the sanctuary. You may sign up on the SignUp Genius website.

Make a Joyful Noise!

If you are not able to make it to Wednesday night choir practice; but you would like to join in on some of these pieces, we would love to have you! You can click on the link to practice the song. Then, join the choir at 9:30 on Sunday morning to warm up.

There is also an opportunity for hand bells if you don't like to sing, but you, or your child(ren) would like to play along. Contact me if you like to sing, to play or to learn more.

Thank you!
Heather Dern
